

European Union and India Enhanced Cooperation Framework for Improved Bilateral Dialogue in the Field of Science and Technology

EUINEC

Grant Agreement no 222787

A BILAT project for INDIA – EU SCIENTIFIC COOPERATION

EUINEC is funded by the
Seventh Framework Programme,
European Commission

Coordinator: Europa Media PSC
Contact: coordinator@euinec.org

EUINEC - An EC – funded initiative aiming at....

Improving the S&T cooperation between EU and India by

- Increasing awareness among Indian and European stakeholders about cooperation opportunities
- Empowering stakeholders to successfully initiate cooperation between India and European organisations

EUINEC is funded by the
Seventh Framework Programme,
European Commission

EUINEC Key Facts

A BILAT project financed by the Seventh Framework Programme, European Commission

Project Start:	1 October 2008
Duration:	3 years
Budget:	500 000 euro / 100 % funded
Funding scheme:	Support Action
Coordinator:	Europa Media PSC
Consortium:	4 partners from Hungary, Italy and India
Website:	www.euinec.org
Contact:	coordinator@euinec.org

EUINEC is funded by the
Seventh Framework Programme,
European Commission

EUINEC Consortium

Coordinator:

Europa Media (HU)

www.europamedia.org

Contact: coordinator@euinec.org

Partners:

CDAC - Center for Development of Advanced Computing, Ministry of Communications and IT, Govt of India (IN) www.cdac.in

APRE – Agency of the Promotion of European Research (IT) www.apre.it

CSIR – Council for Scientific and Industrial Research (IN) www.csir.res.in

EC Scientific Officer:

Mr. Michele Genovese, DG Research,
Specific International Cooperation Activities

EUINEC is funded by the
Seventh Framework Programme,
European Commission

Why EUINEC

Empowerment of Indian stakeholders to prepare them to actively take part in projects funded by FP7

www.euinec.org serves as a single information point

- Single Information Point
- Co-op Area
- E-training on FP7
- Partner search

Increase awareness among EU and Indian stakeholders about cooperation opportunities

Share best practices through joint exchanges of information and experiences

Empowerment of stakeholders to be better prepared for participation in FP7

EUINEC is funded by the Seventh Framework Programme, European Commission

EUINEC structure

EUINEC is implemented via 5 workpackages

No.	Workpackage	WP Leader
WP1	Management and Coordination	Europa Media
WP2	Platform Development	CDAC
WP3	EU India Research Co-op	APRE
WP4	Capacity Building	Europa Media
WP5	Dissemination	CSIR

EUINEC is funded by the
Seventh Framework Programme,
European Commission

How to benefit from EUINEC?

Visit the website www.euinec.org:

A single information point for EU India S&T cooperation

- Find your project partner
- Take part in E-training on FP7 with special focus on India
- Learn about Previous and Ongoing India – EU related projects
- Promote your organisation
- Find News and Calls
- Stay updated on EU India S&T Cooperation

Take part in Events organised by EUINEC

- See updated event schedule at the project website

EUINEC is funded by the
Seventh Framework Programme,
European Commission

Who can benefit from EUINEC

Anyone interested in EU-India scientific co-operation may benefit from EUINEC services

- Universities and institutions
- Researchers and scientists
- SMEs and spin-offs
- Organisations, NGOs and networks

With or without previous experiences of European Framework Programmes

EUINEC is funded by the
Seventh Framework Programme,
European Commission

Are you involved in a similar project?

EUINEC aims to improve the scientific co-operation between Indian and European researchers and organisations and to increase their effective participation in FP7

Let's work together to increase the impact of our efforts!

EUINEC is funded by the
Seventh Framework Programme,
European Commission

EUINEC project

EU India S&T Cooperation

Coordinator: Europa Media PSC
Contact: coordinator@euinec.org

EUINEC is funded by the
Seventh Framework Programme,
European Commission

